A FREE MEMORY-KEEPING STARTER

Everyday Moments, Everlasting Memories

Turn ordinary days into stories your kids will treasure — a simple, no-pressure guide for busy moms who don't have time for perfect scrapbooks.

A FEW OF NICO & OLIVE'S LITTLE ADVENTURES

WHY THIS LITTLE GUIDE EXISTS

I grew up with almost no photos of myself, and it taught me how quietly precious these small moments are. Scrapbooks and videos never fit our busy life — so I flipped the script. Instead of waiting to capture the perfect moment, I started creating them. This is the simple system I use, so you can too.

THE MEMORY-KEEPER'S MINDSET

- 1 Create moments, don't just capture them. Make a tiny bit of magic on an ordinary Tuesday.
- 2 Real beats perfect. Messy hair, half-eaten toast, the proud grin — that's the good stuff.
- 3 Today, not someday. Five minutes now beats a perfect album you never start.

10 EVERYDAY MILESTONES WORTH A STORY

- ♡ Brushing teeth all by themselves
- ♡ A potty-training win
- ♡ Learning to share (or trying to!)
- ♡ Facing a fear — the dark, the slide
- ♡ A new word or a funny thing they said
- ♡ An adventure with a favorite pet
- ♡ Their signature meal or snack
- ♡ The bedtime routine you love
- ♡ A first: haircut, swim, friend
- ♡ An ordinary day that felt like enough

A GENTLE REMINDER

You're not documenting a highlight reel. You're collecting the small, true moments that make up a childhood — the ordinary Tuesdays your kids will one day be so glad you kept.

YOUR 5-MINUTE WEEKLY RITUAL

Once a week, pick one small moment. Jot what happened and one thing you want to remember. Over a year, that's 52 tiny stories — a treasure.
