Three Things, A Year Apart

Grateful for what you have, not what you're still chasing.

1. A year ago, I didn't have…

Be specific. Small things count: a habit, a friendship, a day that felt easier.

2. Today, I'm grateful for…

Name the people, places and moments that are already here.

3. Keep it simple today

One thing I'm finishing today (just one):

One thing that went right today:

Pick one. Notice one. Keep going, and enjoy where you are.
