The Better Prompt Formula

Most weak AI results come from vague prompts.
Use this structure:

Act as a...
Give AI a role.

Example:
personal assistant
life organiser
budget coach
meal planner

Help me with...
Clearly explain the task.

Example:
plan my week
write an email
create a meal plan
organise my home

My goal is...
Add context.

Example:
save time and feel less stressed
eat healthy on a budget
stay consistent and build habits

Keep it...
Choose the tone
or format.

Example:
simple and realistic
encouraging and supportive
short and easy to follow

Ask me if...
Invite clarification.

Example:
you need more details
you have any questions
there's anything else to include

EXAMPLE PROMPT

“

Act as a personal assistant. Help me plan my Sunday reset routine. My goal is to feel calm and prepared for the week. Keep it simple and realistic.

Remember: The more clear you are,
the better the results. ❤️

THANK YOU FOR INVESTING
IN YOUR TIME & PEACE

BRAIN DUMP → AI PROMPT CONVERTER

When your brain feels overloaded, don't organise everything first. Use this:

“I'm feeling overwhelmed about _____. Help me break this down into small, realistic steps.”

You can also say:

“Help me prioritise.”

“Tell me what matters first.”

“Create a simple plan.”

“Make this feel manageable.”

SUNDAY RESET PROMPT

Copy and paste each Sunday:

“Act as my life organiser. Here's what's happening this week: [appointments, deadlines, events]. Help me plan meals, prep tasks, errands, and one thing I can do today to make Monday easier.”

ENERGY-BASED TASK SORTING

Not every task needs your highest energy.

HIGH-ENERGY TASKS

Things requiring focus:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

LOW-ENERGY TASKS

Things you can do tired:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

BATCH TOGETHER

Tasks that fit together:

- ☐ Emails
- ☐ Errands
- ☐ Admin
- ☐ Phone calls
- ☐ Meal prep

AI can help organise your workload around your energy instead of fighting it.

AI Boundaries Checklist

AI is helpful, but it needs boundaries.

NEVER SHARE:

-  Passwords
-  Banking details
-  Government ID
-  Private medical records

ALWAYS REMEMBER:

- ✓ AI can be wrong
- ✓ Double-check important information
- ✓ Review outputs before sending
- ✓ Use professional advice for legal, financial, or medical decisions

CHECKLIST:

- ☐ I reviewed this before sending
- ☐ No sensitive information included
- ☐ I fact-checked anything important

Smart boundaries. Smarter life.
Use AI wisely. Protect what matters.
